

What is Indiana Constructors Leadership Institute?

Indiana Constructors Leadership Institute (ICLI) is a program created for the next generation leaders of the heavy, highway and utility construction industry. This program is available as a membership service for ICI member companies. ICLI provides members the opportunity to engage individuals within their organization that exhibit the potential to become next generation leaders, specifically executive level leadership, with other likeminded individuals. This program will expose these participants to industry knowledge from technical skills to soft skills.

- ICLI consists of 9 courses:
 - Classes begin in January 2023, end in October 2023
 - Class in January will be a two-day retreat as a kick-off to ICLI
 - Classes in February through October will be one full day; no class in June
- Curriculum and class locations will be shared with those accepted to ICLI
- ICLI Graduates will be recognized during ICI Annual Membership Meeting in December 2023

Program Guidelines:

- Must be employed by a current ICI member company
- Nominated by employer
- Supported and approved by senior management of employer
- On track to become next generation, executive level leadership within their organization
- Participants must attend every class to graduate
- Participants must attend at least one ICI Board of Directors Meeting
- Participants must attend ICI Membership Meeting
